CONTENTS

Acknowledgments
Contributor Bios
Introduction

PART ONE:
Patristic Apologists

Justin Martyr: Prophetic Revelation as the True Philosophy
Gerald Bray
Irenaeus of Lyons: Anti-Gnostic Polemicist
Stephen O. Presley
Athenagoras of Athens: Greek Philosophy as Arbiter of Christian Beliefs
W. Brian Shelton
Tertullian of Carthage: African Apologetics Enters the Fray
Bryan M. Litfin
Origen: An Innovator in Apologetic Sophistication
A. Chadwick Thornhill
Athanasius of Alexandria: The Logos as Reason to Believe
Jonathan Morgan
Augustine of Hippo: Apologist of Faith and Reason Seeking Understanding
Chad Meister

PART TWO:
Medieval Apologists

John of Damascus: Preparing Christians for the Coming Age of Islam
Daniel J. Janosik
Theodore Abu Qurrah: Defending Christian Doctrines during the Rise of Islam
Byard Bennett
Timothy I of Baghdad: A Model for Peaceful Dialogue
Edward L. Smither and Trevor Castor

Anselm of Canterbury: Apologetics and the Ratio Fidei
Edward N. Martin and Steven B. Cowan

Saint Thomas Aquinas: Defending Reason and Faith
Francis J. Beckwith and Shawn Floyd

Ramon Lull: Apologetics as the Art of Arts
Greg Peters

Gregory Palamas: Defending the Authority and Evidential Value of Religious Experience in Eastern Orthodoxy
Byard Bennett

PART THREE:
Early Modern Apologists

Hugo Grotius: Reason, Evidence, and Unity as the Means of Apologetics
Bryan Baise

Blaise Pascal: Wagering the Truthfulness of Christianity
Tyler Dalton McNabb and Michael R. DeVito

Jonathan Edwards: Dogmatics as Apologetics
Michael J. McClymond

William Paley: Apologetics of Design and for Culture
Charles Taliaferro

Joseph Butler: Defending the Probability of Christianity against Deism
David McNaughton

PART FOUR:
Nineteenth-Century Apologists

Simon Greenleaf: A Defense That Never Rested
Craig A. Parton

Corneliu C. Simuț

Søren Kierkegaard: Apologetic of Christianity for Christendom
Sean A. Turchin and Christian Kettering
James Orr: Defender of the Christian Worldview
_Ronnie P. Campbell Jr._

B. B. Warfield: The Lion of Princeton
_Kim Riddlebarger_

PART FIVE:
_Twentieth-Century American Apologists_

J. Gresham Machen: Saving Christianity from Christians
_D. G. Hart_

Cornelius Van Til: Presuppositional Apologist
_K. Scott Oliphint_

Gordon Haddon Clark: Logic and Scripture in a Presuppositional Apologetic
_Robert A. Weathers_

Francis A. Schaeffer: Cultural Apologist
_William Edgar_

Edward John Carnell: Finding Common Ground for Apologetics
_Steven A. Hein_

PART SIX:
_Twentieth-Century European Apologists_

A. E. Taylor: Defending the Relationship between Morality and Religion
_Michael O. Obanla and David Baggett_

G. K. Chesterton: Apologist of the Literary Imagination
_Ralph C. Wood_

Dorothy L. Sayers: Pursuing Truth through Stories and Patterns
_Amy Orr-Ewing_

C. S. Lewis: Imaginative Apologetics of a Reluctant Convert
_Alistair E. McGrath_

Dietrich Bonhoeffer: In Defense of Christian Witness
_Matthew D. Kirkpatrick_

Lesslie Newbigin: Missionary Apologist
_Krish Kandiah_
PART SEVEN:
Contemporary Apologists

John Warwick Montgomery: Evangelical, Evidential, and Confessional Lutheran Apologist
Craig A. Parton
Charles Taylor: Apologetics in a Secular Age
Bruce Riley Ashford and Matthew Ng
Alvin Plantinga: Christian Philosophy as Apologetics
James Beilby
Richard Swinburne: Pioneering Analytic Apologetics
Greg Welty
Ravi Zacharias: Evangelist as Apologist
Jo Vitale and Vince Vitale
William Lane Craig: Philosopher as Apologist
R. Keith Loftin
Gary R. Habermas: A Minimal Facts Ministry for Disciples and Doubters
W. David Beck and Benjamin C. F. Shaw
Alister E. McGrath: Scientist and Theologian as Apologist
James K. Dew Jr. and Jordan L. Steffaniak
Timothy Keller: The Pastor as Apologist
Joshua D. Chatraw

Subject Index